

House Resolution No. 1929

Whereas, it is with special pleasure that the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to recognize an outstanding Missouri citizen who has distinguished himself as a leader of his peers; and

Whereas, Herman J. Eckerle of Marble Hill, Missouri, was recently selected to receive the Clay J. Andersen Memorial Scholarship from the Department of Economics at the University of Missouri-Columbia; and

Whereas, Herman Eckerle is a graduate student at the University of Missouri-Columbia, where he is currently studying accounting and economics; and

Whereas, during his college career, Herman Eckerle has worked hard in the classroom while somehow finding the time and energy for a vast array of extracurricular activities that have completed his academic experience; and

Whereas, an active member of Beta Alpha Psi, Phi Beta Lambda, the Association of Accounting Students, and Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, Herman Eckerle is an exceptional young man whose unwavering commitment to excellence is evident both in his studies and the life he leads off campus; and

Whereas, Herman Eckerle has achieved all of this and more with the support and encouragement of his proud mother, Theresa Eckerle of Marble Hill; and

Whereas, America looks to a bright and promising future because of the achievements that have been already realized by such outstanding young citizens as Herman Eckerle:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-second General Assembly, unanimously join in extending our most hearty and robust congratulations to Herman Eckerle at this proud moment of well-deserved distinction, and in wishing him only the very best of success in all his future endeavors; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Herman J. Eckerle, as a mark of our esteem for him.
